CCRManager joined by veteran banker, George Nast

Singapore, 2 April 2018

CCRManager, a global FinTech platform backed by the Monetary Authority of Singapore today announced that veteran banker George Nast has joined the Board as a Director.

Launched in 2017, the rapidly growing digital trade finance initiative today has 33 global financial institutions members across 15 countries and provides a secure and reliable enterprise platform facilitating the distribution of trade finance, working capital, and supply chain finance assets between financial institutions.

Nast was most recently with Standard Chartered Bank where he held a number of global leadership positions including Global Head of Cash Management, Global Head of Transaction Banking Sales & Client Management, and Global Head of Transaction Banking Product Management. Mr Nast was also formerly a partner at McKinsey & Company, where he led the Asia Pacific wholesale banking practice and provided strategic advice on transaction, corporate and investment banking, capital markets, exchanges, and securitisation to financial institutions, central banks, and regulators.

“I’m delighted to join CCRManager and I look forward to working with a very dynamic and experienced team to deliver value to our client institutions, and to reliably and safely connect the world’s financial markets,” said Mr Nast.

Tan Kah Chye, Chairman and Founder of CCRManager, said, “George is a highly respected banker and I have had the privilege of working with him extensively over many years. I am very pleased to be able to welcome him to our team. His deep experience and knowledge of global financial markets will be a great addition to our ability to innovate at speed and to deliver world-class solutions for the global trade ecosystem.”
