CCRManager joined by veteran banker, Craig Weeks

Singapore, 2 August 2018

CCRManager, a global FinTech platform supported by the Monetary Authority of Singapore today announced the appointment of veteran banker Craig Weeks as Chief Representative – Americas.

A distinguished veteran in the trade finance and banking industry, Weeks was most recently with US Bank where he served as Senior Vice President, International Banking Group and International Financial Institutions Group. Immediately prior to US Bank, Mr. Weeks was President and CEO of IRIA (US) Inc., a subsidiary of a Swiss based specialist broker of commodity related structured credit and political risk insurance products. His experience also includes four years at Citibank and 14 years with JPMorgan where he served as Managing Director and Global Trade Sales Head for both institutions. Weeks is also a former Board member and Chair of the Bankers Association for Finance and Trade (BAFT). He began his banking career at Marine Midland Bank (now part of HSBC) where he was Iberia Vice President and Country Manager. Based out of North Carolina, Craig currently advises businesses that will benefit from his deep knowledge and experience in the financial sector.

“I am thrilled for the opportunity to join the team. I have been impressed by the rapidly growing community of members on CCRManager and its strong relationships with its members. I look forward to building on this momentum that CCRManager has established and delivering value to enable client institutions in the Americas to conveniently and reliably trade in the global financial markets,” said Weeks.

Tan Kah Chye, Chairman and Founder of CCRManager, said, “We are excited to have Craig in our team. He brings a wealth of experience as a trade finance and banking professional, which will greatly complement CCRManager’s mission in delivering world-class solutions for the global trade ecosystem. With his impressive track record of leadership and industry knowledge, he will be able to lead the acceleration of CCRManager’s platform in the global financial markets, particularly in the Americas.”

Launched in 2017, the rapidly growing digital trade finance initiative today has 52 global financial institutions members across 21 countries and provides a secure and reliable enterprise platform facilitating the distribution of trade finance, working capital, and supply chain finance assets between financial institutions.
